

Global Agenda: How can Social Workers promote Sustainability?

The aim of this workshop is to present the Global Agenda, its importance for social workers as a profession and the aim for the next two years, working toward environmental sustainability.

In this workshop Rory Truell, the honorary secretary of IFSW will present the background and the aims of the Global Agenda as well as its impact on the social work as a profession.

Josefine Johansson IFSW Europe representative in ENSACT will present the European Observatory for the Global Agenda on Social Work and Social Development and good practices from a number of European Countries, under the 2nd theme of the Global Agenda.

Ana Lima Fernandez, president of IFSW Europe and the Association of Social Workers in Spain will discuss how social workers can promote sustainability.